Disclaimer – For Prices

The prices quoted in this proposal are gross estimates based on standard industry rates and past trends. These costs are subject to availability, seasonal demand, currency fluctuations, and supplier pricing changes. The final pricing may vary based on actual confirmations from hotels, restaurants, transportation providers, and activity operators. No reservations have been made at this stage, and availability is not guaranteed until a formal booking is processed. The quoted rates exclude international flights, visa fees, and travel insurance. Additional costs may apply for special requests, upgrades, or last-minute changes. Please reconfirm pricing before proceeding with bookings.

Visa & Immigration Disclaimer

Indian passport holders require a valid visa to enter Georgia; however, entry is solely at the discretion of Georgian Immigration Authorities. Despite having all required documents in order, there have been multiple incidents where travelers have been denied entry or deported without any stated reason. This remains an unpredictable risk beyond our control. We strongly advise all delegates to be aware of this possibility and take it into consideration before travel. We, or anyone from our office, accept no responsibility for such occurrences and will not be able to assist in any manner should this situation arise.
